Scholarship Info

2012 Agnese Haury Institute for Interpretation students are eligible to apply for an Agnese Haury partial scholarship.

Applicants should respond to the questions/statements below in essay form. Responses should be typed, double-spaced, and on standard letter-size paper (8½ X 11”), and should not exceed two single-sided pages.

Essays must be submitted by the application deadline of April 27, 2012.

Answer the Following:

- Agnese Haury was instrumental in establishing the premier interpreter training programs in the nation. Her support for language access for limited and non-English speakers and leadership has created thousands of opportunities for leaders in the interpretation field. Discuss how you have demonstrated leadership in the interpretation field in your region, district, workplace, or elsewhere.
- Describe your future leadership plans in the field of interpretation given the training you will receive at the Agnese Haury Institute for Interpretation.
- Outline the concrete steps you plan to take to actively contribute to the field of interpretation in the future, i.e., what innovative ideas or vision of improving the professional status of interpretation do you have?
- Outline any financial need that the receipt of a scholarship may help ameliorate.

I agree to not disclose any of my scholarship information and understand that failure to do so may result in a full or partial loss of my scholarship.
